2010-'11 RSEQ MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Concordia University

MEN'S BASKETBALL 2010-'11 SYNOPSIS

Under the guidance of veteran coach John Dore, the 2010-'11 Concordia Stingers men's basketball team ran up an overall record of 23-7 and spent more than half the year ranked in the CIS Top 10.

The Stingers won their fourth Quebec championship in seven years with an exciting 77-67 victory over the Laval Rouge et Or before an overflow crowd at Concordia gym on March 4. The Stingers trailed by 14 points in the second quarter and were down 42-31 at halftime. The Stingers outscored Laval 46-25 in the last half in a thrilling turnaround that clinched the title. Concordia also knocked off the pesky UQAM Citadins by a score of 89-74 in the conference semifinal.

This is the 18th conference title for the Stingers since Concordia University was formed 36 years ago. It is also the 12th regional title for the team since head coach John Dore took over the program in the 1989-'90 season.

Concordia ran up a 21-5 record against CIS competition, including a 14-4 run through the RSEQ. The Stingers spent part of the season battling NCAA teams, including Rhode Island and Vermont. It was a challenging venture with just one win and two losses. But the team thoroughly enjoys the experience, and it helps prepare the Stingers for the CIS season. Coach Dore has a tradition of seeking out top U.S. teams – Duke and Connecticut in 2006 and Brigham Young in 2009, for example – as part of his season schedule.

The current edition of the Stingers is very different from the 2009-'10 team that finished in last place in the Quebec conference with a 4-12 record and missed the playoffs. There are a few changes in the lineup and an extra year of maturity.

"I think the chemistry is very different this year," says head coach John Dore of the last-to-first turnaround. "This group is very open to learning and growing. There's a good attitude. We've had a lot more fun."

Last October, Dore wasn't sure what to expect of his young team. He knew he had a lot of people who could score points, but he wasn't sure how far the Stingers' defensive play would take the team.

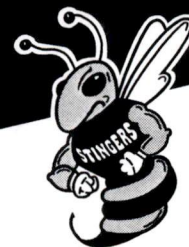

"At the beginning of the year I was just hoping to compete for a conference championship," he says. "I thought if we could get there, it would bode well for the future. Well the future is now."

The Stingers that will compete in the CIS Final 8 are young. Everyone on the team is eligible to return next year, and point guard Kyle Desmarais, the co-MVP of the RSEQ, is only in his second year of eligibility.

Concordia is also athletic and versatile.

"We like the transition game," Dore says, "but we are able to adapt to zone and man-to-man. We play a mish-mash, depending on the opponent. Any good team has to be able to adapt."

MEN'S BASKETBALL 2010-'11 SYNOPSIS

Of course, Desmarais will garner a lot of attention as the standout in the RSEQ. He returned to Canada after playing at Central Connecticut State University in 2008-'09. He sat out last year and joined the Stingers this season.

"He's the glue that kept our team together this year," says Dore.

Along with Desmarais, the Stingers will look to Decee Krah, James Clark and Evens Laroche for scoring. Zach Brisebois and Taylor Garner will be a physical presence for the Stingers.

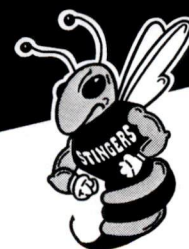

"We're like the little engine that could," says Dore. "We win a lot of close games. We have only four guys who have been to nationals before, but I like our chances if we settle down and play our game."

RSEQ MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

CIS CHAMPIONSHIP PROFILE

John Dore - Head Coach

(22 Years)

First Season 1989-'90

In 2010-'11, John Dore led the Concordia Stingers to their fourth Quebec title in seven years. The team finished in first place in the RSEQ with a 12-4 win-loss record and spent most of the season ranked in the CIS Top 10, peaking at the No. 4 spot in December.

At Concordia University, where he has been the head coach since the 1989-'90 season, Dore has taken the Stingers to the national championship tournament 12 times. He won the national crown in 1990 and placed second in 1995 and 2005.

In the fall of 1995, he was named University Coach of the Year by the Foundation for Quebec University Athletics. He has been named the outstanding coach in the Quebec Student Sports Federation (now RSEQ) conference on 12 occasions, most recently in the 2009 season. In 1991, he was named Men's Basketball Coach of the Year by the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union.

Dore's involvement in basketball doesn't stop at Concordia University. He has been at the helm of several national teams, including Canadian entries at World University Games (Universiade) and the Maccabiah Games. As well, he was president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches of Canada and an international committee member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, U.S.A.

Despite all his commitments, Dore also values any time he can spend with young children and teenagers. Perhaps it is because of his 14 years as chairman of the Physical Education Department at St. George's High School and his work with the Quebec provincial team and the Vanier College Cheetahs. Whatever the reasons, Dore never passes on an opportunity to help out at a basketball clinic. In fact, he has his Stingers volunteer at several each season. He encourages all his players to work with youth and has seen many of his current players and graduates get involved with groups like the YMCA and Sun Youth, and take on coaching duties at local high schools.

Decee Krah

Misc.

- Krah is a big part of the Stingers' success in 2010-'11. He has really grown into his role as a leader, demonstrating maturity and a great commitment to the game. He's become a more complete player, using his athleticism to score in bunches and shutdown some of Quebec's biggest offensive threats.
- In 2009-'10, Krah logged a lot of time as the Stingers' point guard. This season with the arrival of Kyle Desmarais, he was used exclusively as a shooting guard. He enjoyed an exceptional year and was named to the RSEQ first all-star team. "We think shooting guard is his best position," says head coach John Dore.
- At Concordia, Krah works hard at a variety of jobs. He has helped out in the snack bar and worked on promotions for the Stingers. He currently oversees all the music and deejays at Concordia athletic events.
- Krah was an honor roll student at Cathedral High School in Hamilton. He was also captain of the 2006-'07 basketball team. Cathedral won the Hamilton-Wentworth District Catholic School Board championship in 2004 and 2006.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

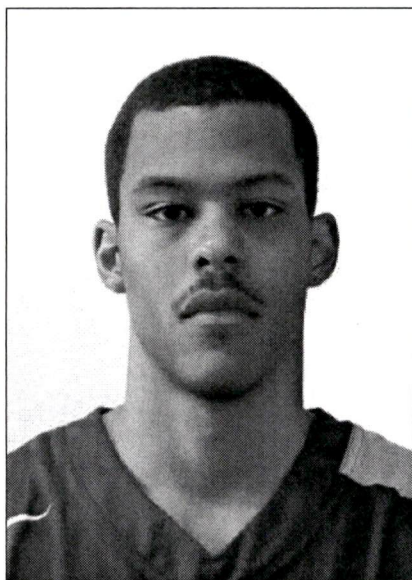

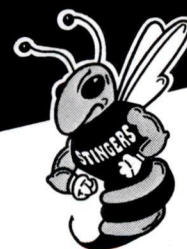

Decee is one of the best three-point shooters in the country.

He always wants the ball down the stretch and wants to shoot the ball when the game is on the line.

Decee is also a great on-the-ball defender. He is second in the conference in steals. He has the ability to be a great defensive player.

- Tajfel comes out of the prestigious Dawson College AAA basketball program.
- A superb athlete, he is one of the Stingers who did well in John Dore's infamous two-mile, 12-minute run. However, he admits it's one of the hardest things he's ever done.
- He lists getting into Concordia's respected John Molson School of Business as one of his proudest accomplishments.

Kyle Desmarais

Misc.

- Desmarais only started playing basketball at 15 years old. He was a long shot to make the highly-respected Dawson College program in his first year, but beat out a returning player for a spot on the roster. In his third year at Dawson, he was named MVP of the Quebec CEGEP AAA league. He also earned CCAA all-Canadian honors.
- He is one of three Stingers that were on the Dawson College CCAA championship team in 2007. Evens Laroche and Frank Fiola were also part of the sensational season.
- Central Connecticut State University offered Desmarais a scholarship after his third year at Dawson. He suited up for the Blue Devils in 2008-'09. He wasn't happy in the program. Desmarais thought the head coach didn't use him well and that he wasn't developing as a player. He left after one year and sat out the 2009-'10 season.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Kyle has been the heart and soul of our team all year. He's the glue that has kept our team together this year.

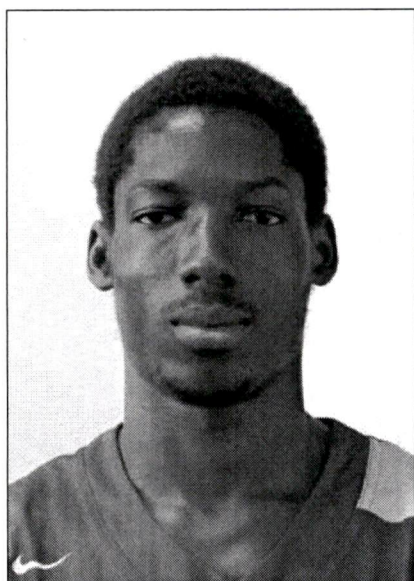

He is shooting an incredible field goal percentage for a point guard (55.4 in Quebec/62.0 in non-conference).

He has stepped up as a point guard and continued to improve throughout the season. He controls the ball and runs the offence.

Kyle is the main reason for the team's move from last place in 2010 to first place this year.

Misc.

- Eyitayo had no experience with organized basketball before arriving at Concordia. Coach John Dore saw a lot of potential in him and agreed to keep him with the team and to work on developing his raw talent.
- He arrived in Canada in December 2007. He had never seen snow before. He says it was "a harsh welcome." Despite the snow, he says he finds Montreal to be a quite welcoming city.
- Eyitayo is from the Republic of Benin, a country in Western Africa. It borders Togo to the west, Nigeria to the east and Burkina Faso and Niger to the north. Its size is just over 110,000 km² with a population of almost 8,500,000. Its capital is the Yoruba-founded city of Porto Novo, but the seat of government is the city of Cotonou. It is a French-speaking nation. The economy of Benin remains underdeveloped and dependent on subsistence agriculture, cotton production and regional trade.
- He is studying civil engineering. After he graduates and gets some experience in his field, he'd like to return home to "make a contribution to my country."

Comments from head coach John Dore:

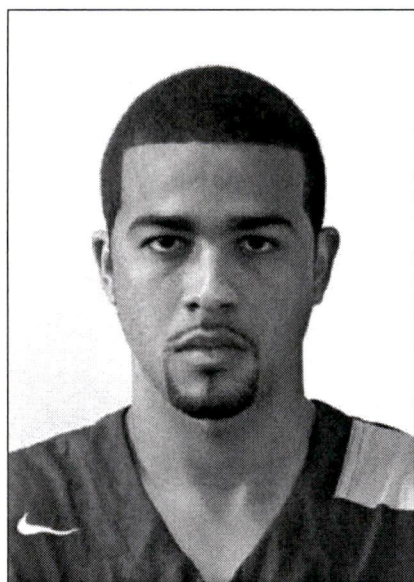

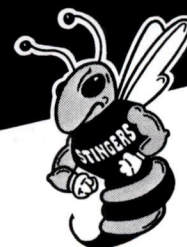

Kafil has tremendous athletic ability. He has unlimited potential.

In the championship game versus Laval, he blocked two shots at the end that were game-changing. (He had three blocks in the game in 13 minutes of play).

He has been an excellent addition to the Stingers. He is a good, honest kid.
